merit alone.

Inspector McKelvey is one of the most up as follows:

Brooklyn, He served in the war in Company E, Tenth Regiment, New York Infantry, coming out with the rank of Captain. He was made a patrolman on the Brookiyn force July 20, 1863; promoted to be a telegraph operator Aug. 21, 1873; drill captain April 1, 1882, and Captain Jan. 17, 1885. He was the best drill-master the police force ever had.

Since he was made a Captain he has been in charge of the De Kaib avenue station. He is a prominent member of the G A. R., being connected with Grant Post, No. 227, and a life-long Republican. He was one of the guard of honor who accompanied the body of Gen. Grant from Mount McGregor.

To Inspector McKelvey will fall the very important task of closing up the dives at Coney Island. Commissioner Welles announced to-day that the Gravesney realize would not contain the contained of the gravesney troubs would not be determined to the contained to the gravesney troubs. out with the rank of Captain. squad, was transferred to Fulton street, where he will act as Captain.

Mayor Schieren had a long conference in his office this morning with several Gravesend officials and Lawyer George F. Elliott, who as counsel to the Citizens' Committee of the town, first discovered the irregularities in McKane's accounse. There were present in the Mayor's office Supervisor Hennett, Justice of the Peace Voorhees and Lawyer Hubbard counsel to the Town Board of Audit.

Mayor Schieren asked Justice Voorhees and Supervisor Bennett if they thought it advisable for the city authorities to close up all the saloons, concert halls, shows and dives on Coney Island.

Justice Voorhees said he thought all the concert halls, dives and shows should be closed and the saloons restricted to a certain number, which would practically close up the objectionable ones.

Before taking any action in the matter the Mayor said he would like to have another conference with the town officials and Mr. Elliott next Monday morning.

Lawyers Elliott and Hubbard then told the Mayor of the many irregularities in the financial affairs of the town. Mr. Elliott said he had papers showing that John Y. McKane's accounts were short about $200,000 and that gross frauds had been practised by many of the officials of the town.

These documents, he said, would be produced when Mayor Schieren was ready to begin the official investigation.

The Dock bill is a faw clearly in the interest of the taxpayers. It abolishes the inquitous system of giving out dock work by days labor to favorite contractions, which has cost the city twice as much as it will under the contract system, which the act signed by the Governor provides for.

All contracts for sums over $500 will hereafter have to be awarded to the lowest bidder after competitive bids have been invited. As the Dock Department spends three millions a year on these private snap contracts, the saving the city will make by having the work done at about half the former cost will be over a million dollars a year.

One object of the amendments is to relieve individual investors in corporations of the charge where their net incomes do not exceed $4,000, but to have the profits of the corporations taxed.

It is also proposed to eliminate the inquisitorial features of the tax. Instead of compelling the individual to exhibit his books and papers the assessor may estimate the amount of the income, and the person so assessed may appear and prove that he has been assessed too high, if such is the case.

It is provided that nothing in the act shall apply to States, countles or municipalities; nor to corporations, companies or associations organized and conducted solely for charitable, religious or educational purpose; nor to the stocks, shares, funds or securities held by any fiduciary or trustees for charitable, religious or educational purpose; nor to such building and loan associations as are organized under the laws of any State or Territory or of the District of Columbia, which makes loans to their shareholders to enable them to provide for themselves homes.
